

They Traveled on Passes.

The Record-Union has found out that when the President and his suite made a tour across the continent they violated that provision of the Interstate law which forbids any railway company to grant a pass across State lines under a penalty of $5,000. The President had with him nine persons, and they passed into and out twenty-four States on passes, or free transportation if no passes were formally issued, which constitutes for each of the ten persons twenty-four distinct violations of the law on the part of railway officials. The penalties aggregate $1,200,000, and the Record-Union wishes to know whether the law will be enforced in this case as it would be if a pass had been granted to some poor person needing assistance from one way station to another across a State line.—San Jose Mercury.

It is asserted that the Labor Unions of Chicago propose to boycott the World's Fair, because their demands have not been complied with. They made two demands: First, that eight hours should be deemed a day's work; and secondly, that for eight hours all the contractors should be compelled to pay ten hours' wages. The Commission agreed to the first condition but demurred to the second. The laborers are foolish, to say the least. Their second proposition was decidedly cheeky, and their threat to boycott the World's Fair, if attempted to be carried out, will prove to be a boomerang which will react disastrously to themselves.

The Examiner has caught an Assemblyman Bruner out in another 'boodle transaction and also ex-Assemblyman McCall. The latter was one of the committee who made a minority whitewash report when Bruner was investigated. The reason for one pal standing by another is now painfully apparent. The Examiner has done the public good service in exposing these public rascals.

Senator Stewart in an interview advances the idea that the President should never succeed himself. He holds that he can be of more use to the country when not scheming and pulling wires for reelection.

The Senator argues the proposition with such ability that one is forced to the conclusion that a second term is not only injudicious for the President but also for Senators and Congressmen.

The APPEAL has received the prospectus of the Leland Stanford Jr. University. In looking over the schedule of things a person has to know in order to be admitted, we are inclined to the belief that a young man who is smart enough to pass the required examination doesn't need any more schooling.

If Blaine and Cleveland were the nominees of the great opposing parties, it would be hard to verify the old adage that a man once beaten for the Presidency cannot successfully run again—unless the Farmers Alliance got in first on the home stretch.

The war down in Chili is interesting. The insurgent cruiser Encalada has been blown to smithereens by a torpedo and only twelve men out of two hundred were saved. The rest went to the sharks. The Florence was also knocked out.

Two men fought a duel with swords over a pretty girl in Chicago Monday. It was totally unlike the French variety, in as much as blood was drawn, one man receiving a gash in the neck.

DeYoung has finally secured the appointment of Maxwell as Chief of the Horticultural Department of the World's Fair. Maxwell in that position is a most notorious case of misfit.

A snow storm may be expected now almost any time.
